ANNUAL PUBLICATION OF THE STUDENTS
OF HOLLINS COLLEGE
VIRGINIA

MR. JOHN T. GRIFFIN

Dedication

No dance ever given without your aid,
 No building ever planned.
 You give advice and look ahead,
 Our workers go to you instead
 With problems, praise, and thanks.
 A man who is needed everywhere
 In business and at play
 He's "great" to all with whom we share
 The glory, joy, and ceaseless care
 Throughout our Hollins stay—

To Mr. Griffin, whose unceasing efforts are the structural backbone of this campus, we respectfully dedicate The Spinster.

Foreword

PANDEMONIUM clanging from a screaming bell—Tinker Day
EXCITEMENT wearing left-handed diamonds . . .
LAUGHTER holding its sides over Michael Finnegan . . .
JOY ringing on a telephone . . .
SUSPENSE smoking cigarettes before a psych exam . . .
LOVE holding hands and wearing pins . . .
SORROW saying goodbye rolling down red cheeks . . .
CONTENTMENT with closed eyes smiling up from under covers . . .
QUIETNESS with its shoes off looking up at mountain tops . . .
BEAUTY gowned in Spring looking at herself in iridescent brooks . . .
SOLITUDE feeling quite alone but knowing God is there . . .

All this in Hollins.
In it we found her spirit—
So dear we could not touch it,
Much as we cannot touch the stars;
And yet we knew 'twas there
Because it called to us:
Encouraged us when failings dropped the keys to joy,
And smiled at us when others saw our faults;
Enlightened our dumb minds with cleanest truth;
Inspired and raised our thoughts on high
When only He could be our Guide.

And though we leave these gates
That house an age-old heritage,
Her spirit—symbolic in our ring—
Will cling to us through life.

The Fishburn Library

The Fishburn Library is an air-conditioned building of modern, functional design with a seating capacity of over one-third of the student body and an eventual book capacity of around 115,000 volumes. Acoustical ceilings, rubber tile floors, as well as sound-proof special rooms, make for maximum quiet; while the flexible interior with its glass partitions gives a feeling of spaciousness.

The large reading areas, with their adjacent open stacks, are both comfortable and attractive, and the accessibility of the books is conducive to greater book use and browsing. The warmth and cheerfulness of the rooms are achieved by the use of bright colors, draperies, upholstered divans and chairs, and large windows, which look out on the college grounds, quadrangles, and distant mountains.

Individual study tables, typing rooms, faculty studies, as well as smoking study alcoves, are provided to meet varying study needs of the campus. In addition the library includes periodical and reference areas, a delightful browsing and rare book room, a spacious conference and board room, an out-of-door study terrace, and a listening room for individuals or class groups to enjoy recordings of poetry and drama.

Various display cases and bulletin boards extend the opportunities for exhibits; while the charm and quiet of the McVitty Browsing Room, with its book lined walls, provides a place for the cultivation of reading tastes and the enjoyment of fine book-making. The browsing room is also used for informal literary lectures, and an adjoining kitchenette makes possible the serving of tea or coffee.

North Dormitory

The New Dormitory completed this year is a comfortable building in which to live and study. Built-in closets and dressers provide twice as much room as in the older dormitories, and built-in desks under the windows which extend the full width of the rooms utilize the natural light for study and give a maximum surface for work.

On each floor there are large closets providing for out-of-season garments and evening dresses. On the first floor there is a laundry room and a central baggage room where each girl can easily get to her trunk. On the second floor the study smoker and kitchen are in constant use.

The main social room and adjoining card room are also located on the second floor. The low modern furniture in these rooms and the solid walls absent of knick-knacks always give these rooms a neat appearance.

The New Dormitory—L-shaped and of modern architecture—makes effective use of the hill on which it is built. It is possible to enter the dormitory at any of its three levels. One may enter into the reception room from the parking lot at the top level. Going down the steps at the left of the reception room, one finds himself in the main social room. This room may be also entered at the end of the walk leading from Presser or at the other side from a terrace in the shadow of Tinker Mountain.

There is also a smaller terrace at the back of the building along the major axis, providing an outdoor place for studying and socializing. The view from here and the bedrooms in this wing overlook the tennis courts and the beautiful Appalachian mountains in the distance.

The New Dormitory has been designed for economical maintenance and pleasant living. It is truly a magnificent building.

Organizations

Student Government Association

The Student Government Association of Hollins College is composed of all students, and is founded upon the principles of honor and self-reliance. It proposes to represent and to further the best interest of the student body, to secure cooperation between the different organizations, and to promote responsibility, self-control, and loyalty among the students.

Because the Association is not static, but dynamic in its attempt to achieve a more ideal government, responsibility rests on each student to make a conscious and continuous effort to uphold it and improve it. Individual responsibility for oneself and for the entire group necessitates a clear and comprehensive understanding of the ideals of a student group thus organized. It implies a recognition of the spirit as well as the letter of our laws, and a thoughtful and sympathetic consideration of all phases of student life. From this will follow an active cooperation and a sincere interest in upholding the history, ideals and spirit of our college.

Freya

Freya is an organization which exists, not as an end in itself, not simply for the recognition, however great, but for the perpetuation of the principles of creative living which constitute the beautiful and abiding qualities of Hollins life. Freya seeks to do this by recognizing as members those students who have shown by their own way of life a real understanding of the permanent, on-going values of Hollins. These girls have in some way, out of their love for the college and devotion to its values, made tangible and intangible contributions to its life in the fields of scholarship, leadership, and creativity.

To be eligible for membership a student must have a cumulative scholastic average somewhat higher than that required for graduation with honor.

"Who's Who" is an honorary organization recognized in many colleges and universities in this country. Selection to this group is based on academic achievement, leadership, character, and participation in extra-curricular activities. On this campus students are nominated by the Executive Council in conjunction with the administration and then approved by the "Who's Who" national committee. Only Juniors and Seniors are considered.

"Who's Who" was first introduced to Hollins in the 1930's and has been continued since then with the exception of a few years during the war.

The year 1955 marks a new trend in the Hollins social events. November 11th and 12th were the dates of the first Cotillion week end. By the consent of the student body, the Cotillion was reorganized with the purpose of acting solely as a dance committee. The efforts of this organization are now concentrated on planning this annual dance week-end. Members of the Cotillion are chosen on the basis of their ability and interest in planning for this event.

The Hollins Abroad students of 1956 sailed for Europe, February 16, on the French liner Liberte to become the second group in the Hollins Abroad program. They have matriculated at the Sorbonne for the second semester of their Sophomore year, will go on an extended tour of fourteen European countries this summer, and will then complete their year abroad by spending first semester of their Junior year also at the Sorbonne. During the school semesters, each girl is living with a French family in Paris. The purpose of this program is to broaden ones interest, to establish a more adequate basis of judgement, and to develop a better understanding of other nationalities.

Riding is a popular sport at Hollins, the average number of riders being sixty. The instructors, Count and Countess Gyurky, escaped from Communist-held Hungary with some of their well-trained horses which the riders are fortunate enough to ride. Besides riding at school, the riders hunt with the Rockbridge Hunt and participate in various shows.

The Riding Club is a small group of girls who show outstanding interest and ability in riding and are selected by their knowledge of horses and skill on horseback. The purpose of the club is to create interest among all of the riders, and to emphasize equitation, manners, and performance of the horse. It also presents a large show in the spring, with classes for the beginners, intermediates and advanced in equitation, and jumping, a cross-country course, and a drill.
